

Junior Sales Representative

We will welcome a communicative, dynamic and team-oriented junior sales representative who is looking forward to work in a modern medical devices field. We offer a pleasant working environment and adequate compensation. This is an opportunity to be a part of a well-established small international company representing well-known medical manufacturers and start-up companies.

Main Responsibilities

- Building and maintaining business relationships with customers
- Creating sales reports
- Working on tenders
- Assisting in event management regarding workshops and seminars
- Dealing with health insurance(s) regarding product reimbursement
- Communicating with manufacturers and

We Require

- High school or Bachelor's Degree in a related field preferred
- Excellent communication, presentation and negotiation skills
- Eager to learn
- Team-oriented cooperative approach
- Ability to deal and work with time pressure
- Reliability, loyalty and integrity
- Excellent Czech is a must, fluent in English both written and spoken
- Driving license B

We offer

- Good compensation reflecting work experience and performance
- Diverse tasks
- Laptop, mobile phone and a company car after a trial period
- Lunch vouchers
- Flexible working hours with possible home working
- Pleasant working environment in a small friendly team

If you are interested in this challenging position send your application containing your CV in English and a motivation letter to info@euromedical.com.